AT METHODIST CHURCH Special Sermons and Sunday School Exercises-Diplomas, Bibles and

Sunday was Rally day at Trinity Methodist church. In the morning the pastor, Rev. Dr. M. S. Kaufman, prached a practical sermon on the theme. Rally Day Enthusiasm Justified. His text was taken from Nehemiah vill: land 5. The supreme importance of Bible school work was emphasized. Both children and adults need the lessons here taught, he said. The Bible lies at the foundation of our nation's truest greatness. It is one chief sourse of good citizenship. one chief sourse of good citizenship. Men and women who accept and prac-tice its truths are better qualified for this life's duties and thereby prepared for the life to come. At the noon hour a large attendance

At the noon hour a large attendance cheered and encouraged the Sunday school worker. A programme of much interest was carried out. The super-intendent, Hon. Costello Lippitt, presided. The opening hymn, Ring. Ye Beils of Joy, was sung with heartiness. After the 23d psalm was repeated in unison. D. H. Purvis, assistant superintendems. superintendent, offered prayer; an an-them was given by the church choir; the pastor presented briefly the mean ing and purpose of Rally ray and urg-ed a generous collection for the Sun-day school board of the denomination which is establishing schools in destitute regions. A recitation, The Givers, was beautifully given by Natalie McPherson. The roll call by the treasurer, C. Leslie Hopkins, was responded to by all the teachers except three. In several classes the entire enroll-ment were present, the total bing 230. Miss Elizabeth A. Lane rendered a violin solo to the delight of the lis-teners. Helen Ladd and Viola Bernice Palmer. Reports were given by Mrs. J. C. Morgan, superintendent of the home department, and by Mrs. Costello Lippitt, superintendent of the primary department, including the cradle roll.

A declamation, Rally Day, I'll Be There, was rendered with telling effect by Master Forest R. Lewis.

Next came graduation exercises of eleven from the primary room. The superintendent gave to eac ha beautifully bound copy of the psalms and Mrs. Lippitt, under whose efficient and loving care they had been for several years, gave the diplomas to Allison ComstockPost, Forest Trumbull Lewis, Arthur Worthington Botham, Rogers Larkin Worthington Bessie Louise Brown, Barbara Christo Odgers, Mildred Luella Barrows, Grace Carswell Service, Gladys Bently Newbury, Luli Gertrude Penfield, Aifif Haddad.
